Dear nancy,
I received my bag.
Wonderful. A perfect copy!!!
In a Hermes' shop I also saw a bigger size of it. It is a travel bag really and not a hand bag.
Do you produce it as well? I think it could be the size of the red bag carried by the asiatic woman in the picture on your website.
Let me know
Thanks a lot

Dear Nancy,

Just to let you know that my repaired bag arrived today, and the repairs are faultless! I was so concerned that with the oxidation of the leather from carrying the bag, that there would be colour match issues. But I am absolutely delighted - the craftsmanship, quality of repair is well beyond my expectations. It is truly a testament to the incredibly high standards of the manufacturer that you use. I would also like to thank you for your excellent customer service - for always responding to my emails and keeping me apprised of events when and as you were made aware of them and in a timely fashion. From the point of view of quality of merchandise, standing behind your product 110%, I seriously doubt that Hermes themselves could have done better!!

I've just received the bag and it was a pretty nice bag. Thanks.

However, there are some minor problems that the bag has some scratches on hardwares and a plastic cover was toughly tucked into one of the hardware and it was really hard to take that out from it. I could not take it out completely and it does not look clean. Anyway, I can accept those problems, but next time I buy some products from you, I'd like you to be more careful of those details. Anyhow, it is really nice bag!

Nancy, I may have inadvertently deleted it because of computer Internet trouble. Really, I am so excited to see how this compares to the real thing. I will also look at your LV, for gift ideas.

Talk to you later.

Cordially,
dale
